

Tony Duquette by REMAINS LIGHTING

PLUME SCONCE

The bouquet of feathers adorning the Plume Sconce call to mind the Rue de la Faisanderie in the 16th arrondissement of Paris, where a pheasant house once stood on the grounds of the Chateau de la Muette where Tony Duquette decorated the home of his patron, Paul Louis Weiller, the French philanthropist and collector of historic houses. The two branches spring from a central cluster cinched with a rope-detailed cuff. Shown in Duquette Nickel.
